

MARCHING HOSTS, CHEERING CROWDS, AT HOME OF COX

Dayton and Visiting Thousands
Pay Tribute to Candidate at Notification.

CITY GAY WITH FLAGS

Franklin D. Roosevelt and Other Notables at Luncheon at Trail's End.

DAYTON, O., Aug. 7.—Democratic legion, by thousands, representing the party's leadership and rank and file, joined to-day in the ceremony presenting their leader to the American electorate. All States, territories and possessions were represented in the day's programme which culminated in Gov. Cox's address of acceptance stating the Democratic cause.

Dayton gave itself over to this its first Presidential notification. A half holiday was in force for the ceremonies at the Montgomery County Fair Grounds, about a mile from the centre of the city, while Ohio and other States sent thousands more by special trains, automobiles and other conveyances.

City buildings, homes and the fair grounds were decorated with flags, bunting and banners, with gilt shields and evergreen. Lithographed pictures of Gov. Cox by thousands were on display. At the fair grounds, seats for about 4,000 were provided in the flag-decked amphitheatre and special auxiliary grandstands.

Marching delegations swept through the streets with blaring bands and were reviewed by Gov. Cox and the other party notables at the fair grounds.

J. Spring McMahon, local Democratic leader and close friend of Gov. Cox, was the presiding officer. Clergy, selected for the invocation and benediction, respectively, were the Rev. William A. Hale of the Reformed Church and the Rev. Martin F. Neville of Holy Angels' Roman Catholic Church here.

Free to the fair grounds ceremony the Governor and Mrs. Cox had as guests at a noon buffet luncheon at Trails End the members of the Notification and National Committee and other prominent leaders. Mr. Roosevelt, his wife and daughter and Chairman White of the National Committee were among the Governor's house guests for the notification period.

In addition to Gov. Cox and Mr. Roosevelt, places on the speakers' stand were provided for a group of party chiefs. Mrs. Cox and the Governor's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Mahoney, and other relatives and friends had boxes in the amphitheatre.

Given the honor position in the parade line was the celebrated "Cox Band." Immediately behind the ear-splitting musicians from Fiqua, O., were the "Cox Boosters." Dayton's fighting delegation at San Francisco. Theirs was the glory of leading in the Cox campaign song of the convention, "Ohio," which was the musical motif of the day's entire festivities.

Every band to the city played and most of the thousands sang the Cox Ohio song, which reached a pinnacle of fame by its almost constant use at San Francisco. It promises to be the big campaign song. As sung to-day it had these words:

"The hills send back the cry
"We're here to do or die;
"Ohio, Ohio,
"We'll elect Jim Cox or know the reason why."

In another modified form was the "Battle Cry of the Bluebirds" (57th Division in France).

Early promise for fair weather was broken by gathering clouds, and by 10 o'clock a light rain arrived, with local thunderstorms predicted for to-day and to-morrow. The rain was not heavy enough to send the street crowds to cover, but bobbing umbrellas soon appeared over gaudy but delicate uniforms of the visiting delegations.

The fair grounds early took on a circus appearance, with the tents of lunch and soft drink stands. Numbers of spectators hustled to the amphitheatre early to secure seats.

BUMPS HEAD ON SAFE; DIES.

No Mystery in Death of Richmond Hill Travelling Salesman.
After an investigation the Jamaica police announced to-day that there was no crime or mystery involved in the death of Louis Purchase, a travelling salesman, who lived with his sister at Tower Villa, St. Anne's Avenue, Richmond Hill, L. I., who died last night in Mary Immaculate Hospital, Jamaica, of a fractured skull. He was taken to the hospital in a dying condition yesterday from the Court Hotel, No. 238 Fulton Street, Jamaica, where he registered Thursday night.

John Hartman, the hotel manager, stated that Purchase, who was usually steady, fell heavily against the hotel safe, striking his head on it. Purchase's jewelry and $150 in cash were in the hotel safe. His automobile had been left in Union Hall Street, near Fulton. The Jamaica police announced that Purchase had registered at the hotel, which was frequently visited by him, and that he was found dead in the morning.

STRIKE IN DENVER OFF; MARTIAL LAW DECLARED IN CITY

Trolley Companies Say They Won't Recognize Union in Taking Men Back.

3 MORE DEAD IN RIOTS

Police Fire on Mob, Wounding
Many, Including Women and Children.

DENVER, Aug. 7.—Two hundred soldiers under Col. C. C. Ballou arrived here early to-day from Fort Logan to maintain order just as leaders of the tramway men's union voted to recommend calling off the street car men's strike which has been followed by two days of violence resulting in the deaths of three men and wounding of a dozen persons last night.

Martial law was declared in Denver to-day as a result of street car strike riots which were resumed last night. This decision was reached before dawn at a conference of Mayor Bailey, police officials, State Attorneys and Col. Ballou. Federal troops are occupying the city in co-operation with the police in maintaining order.

The tramway men were to meet at 9 o'clock this morning to take a vote on the recommendation of their executive committee. Gov. Shoup, in a statement at Colorado Springs, said that the action of the union leaders would not serve to halt the arrival of troops. Five hundred more soldiers were under orders at Camp Funston to leave early to-day.

In a statement issued shortly after the announcement of the union leaders, Frederick W. Hild, general manager of the tramway company, announced that the striking car men would be taken back but that there would be no working agreement with the union and the union would not be recognized. The statement further declared that preference in filling vacancies would be given the strikers' breakers employed by the company to run cars.

The call for Federal troops was issued last night when a mob attacked the East Denver car barns and was repelled with rifle fire. Three men were killed and a dozen persons, including women, girls and boys, were wounded. Several similar gatherings had been broken up earlier in the evening.

Between 400 and 500 American Legion members, wearing the uniforms which they wore during the World War, are patrolling the outlying districts of the city to relieve the regular policemen for duty in the downtown sections.

Armored motor cars equipped with mounted machine guns are patrolling the downtown district. Other machine guns were mounted on tops of buildings near possible trouble centres. More than 1,000 civilians volunteered to assist the police force in maintaining order. They were armed with army rifles, sawed-off shotguns and revolvers.

All theatres, including moving picture houses, in the downtown section are closed. Citizens were requested by Mayor Bailey to remain at home. Cars will be operated again to-day, Frederick W. Hild, General Manager of the tramway company, announced.

500 MORE TROOPS ARRIVE TO END RIOT IN ILLINOIS TOWN

Casualties Now Number Five Dead,
50 Wounded—Quiet Is Restored.

JOHNSON CITY, Ill., Aug. 7.—Five hundred additional State troops arrived early to-day in West Frankfort, five miles from here, to reinforce militiamen already on the ground in suppressing race rioting.

The little mining town was reported to be comparatively quiet to-day following sporadic fighting between small groups of citizens and some of the few remaining foreigners last night, which was quickly suppressed by the soldiers.

Casualties already had totaled five dead and more than 50 wounded. Practically all the homes of foreign residents had been razed by incendiary fires and many store buildings were burned.

The most potent factor in relieving the tense situation was said to be the general exodus of the foreign population following the decree that "all foreigners must go."

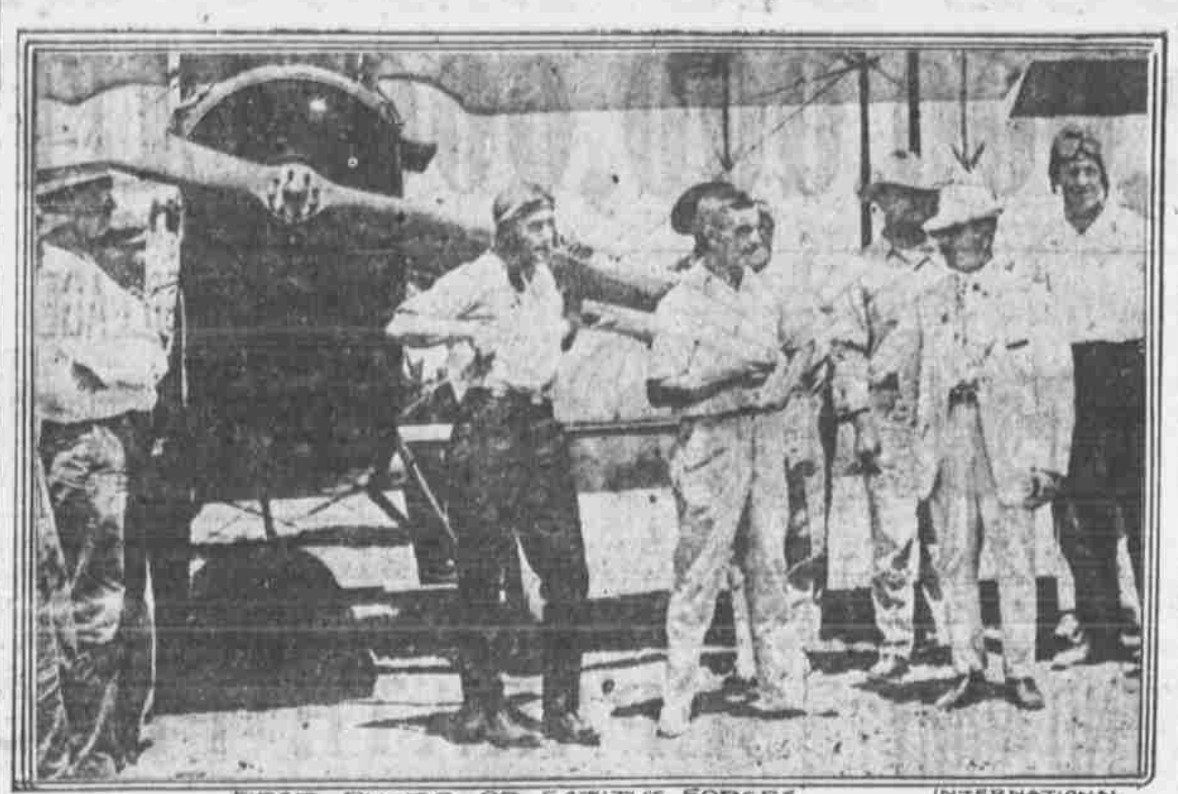

Direct communication from West Frankfort was still impossible early to-day owing to telegraph and telephone wires having been cut by the rioters Thursday night, when the outbreak started.

The town was completely in charge of the military, under Brig. Gen. Frank B. Wells, who arrived last night. All pool rooms, ice cream parlors and other gathering places of the youth of the town were closed.

Little Child Falls Five Floors—Lives.

Mary Dahl, four years old, of No. 1745 Townsend Avenue, Bronx, fell from a fifth floor window to the yard at her residence this morning. She was removed to Fordham Hospital in a serious condition, suffering from a fractured skull and internal injuries.

ALLIES PLANNING TO SEND BIG ARMY TO DEFEND WARSAW

by Soviet troops have been reported, and even there they have been limited by the desperate fighting of the Poles.

Polish forces have been forced to retire from Tereopol, about four miles west of Brest-Litovsk, and have lost Muramiec, about five miles to the south. Thus the Bolsheviks have gained a foothold on the west bank of the Bug River in this region, but it is probable their further progress will be very slow, as permanent forts erected years ago to defend the city must be stormed if the Soviet legions are to gain ground there.

Northwest of Brest-Litovsk, along the Bug River, the Poles have launched vigorous counter-attacks and have succeeded in driving back across the river Bphivsk detachments which had succeeded in reaching the left bank of the stream. Further north along the battlefield, toward the East Prussian frontier, a great battle is being fought, but no details of the outcome have been given in late dispatches. At Myszyniec, about five miles from the German boundary, the Poles are well entrenched and appear to be holding their own in spite of savage assaults against their positions.

In the southern sectors of the front fighting of a serious nature is going on, and the Poles seem to be gaining ground at some points.

Warsaw dispatches tell of a great rush of foreigners to leave and that all outgoing roads are congested with refugees. Little mention is made of the fighting except that plans for the defense of the capital are being rushed with feverish activity.

Diplomatically the situation would seem to be easier.

According to the latest information the British Government has accepted the Bolshevik note insisting on a separate peace with Poland and promising to attend the London conference subsequently on the conditions they have laid down. The truth is, Premier Lloyd George had no option, for any proposal to go to war for the Poles against Russia would have been repudiated by the country.

The Labor Party, to make sure no more interference can be undertaken, has summoned an urgent conference of trades union and other bodies to meet in London. Russia was satisfied that it had Poland definitely beaten, and that its launching means an attempt to destroy England in Asia.

A movement on Constantinople is forecast if the Red Army is not checked, and the opinion is hazarded that Russian control of the Dardanelles is one of the direct objects.

There is no report as to whether the newspaper says that the fall of Warsaw is imminent, and that it is believed they have cut off the escape of the Polish troops into the Polish corridor.

U. S. FLYERS SHOT DOWN IN POLAND BY BOLSHEVIKI

Third American Airman Killed Recently, According to Advices in London.

LONDON, Aug. 7.

TWO American officers, flying a Hanoverian two seater, have been shot down by a Bolshevik war plane behind the Russian front, according to the Standard. It names Capt. Merion Cooper and Capt. George Kelly.

The Standard says the third American recently shot down was killed. They are all members of the American flying squadron fighting with the Poles, numbering about a dozen men, formerly members of the Lafayette Escadrille in France, and now called the Kosciuszko squadron.

RUSSIA MENACES BRITAIN IN PERSIA, WASHINGTON HEARS

Kuropatkin With Great Army
Reported to Be Moving on Capital of Shah.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Advices just received at the State Department are causing greatly increased interest here in the Russian-Polish situation.

It is reported that a Russian movement has developed in Persia that is interpreted to mean a challenge to British Asiatic interests, and to indicate a determination on the part of the Russians to take the offensive generally against the "capitalistic" powers.

Old Gen. Kuropatkin, Russian commander in the war with Japan, is reported at the head of a vast army moving on Teheran. Word came from John L. Caldwell, American Minister in Persia, that the Russian forces were perilously near to Tabriz and Kermanshaw, and that Teheran might be evacuated at any time. The Shah of Persia with his family and his Government is meditating a removal of the capital.

The Russian movement is in conjunction with the Turkish, Egyptian and Indian national movement, and opposing them are only 11,000 troops, 1,000 British, 5,000 Persians and about as many Egyptian soldiers, all under British command.

Minister Caldwell was immediately called "correct instructions" authorizing him to direct as he thought best the conduct of the American Consul in his jurisdiction, which means that he is to give the word when they are to leave their posts.

The military people figure that the Kuropatkin movement was held in abeyance until Russia was satisfied that she had Poland definitely beaten, and that its launching means an attempt to destroy England in Asia.

JUGO-SLAVS FIRE ON ITALIAN WARSHIP

LONDON, Aug. 7.—Firing upon an Italian battleship from Flume by Jugo-Slavs is reported in a Central News despatch from Rome, which gives as its authority the Piume correspondent of the Rome Popolo Romano. The battleship returned the fire and dispersed the Jugo-Slavs.

It is officially announced, adds the Central News despatch, that the Albanians have occupied Kastrati, capturing three machine guns and driving the Serbians, who recently seized the town, over the frontier.

NEW COURT HOUSE LIKELY TO BE CAUSE OF BIG LABOR WAR

arbitration be taken out of its contract with the city is proof enough for me that the company is ready and willing to make a battle ground of the Court House job in its contest with the building trades organizations of this city.

"It became necessary to readvertise the steel bids because they were not in conformity with the specifications. In the face of my protest the Controller readvertised them without the arbitration provision."

Manhattan Borough President Curran and Commissioner of Public Works Sullivan of Queens, representing President Connolly, sided with La Guardia, but the other members of the Estimate Board agreed to readvertise the bids without the arbitration provision. This action was considered a decided blow against organized labor because it is known that labor leaders felt they would secure justice in an appeal to city officials.

On the other hand, contractors who had determined to fight union labor if necessary, opposed the arbitration provision because they claimed it permitted labor leaders to hold a political club over the heads of the officials or those who might be appointed by officials to settle labor disputes. But President La Guardia says he doesn't propose that the Bethlehem Steel Bridge Corporation or any other firm of contractors shall make a city structure a battle ground for a labor fight.

President La Guardia decided to send a second telegram of inquiry after he had heard from the Bethlehem Steel Company. This was despatched to the McClintick-Marshall Company, steel bridge builders of Pittsburgh, which was one of the Bethlehem Company's competitors on the Court House bid.

The answer of the McClintick-Marshall Company follows: "Replying to your telegram of the 2d instant regarding our proposition to the city on the New York County Court House, we wish to advise you that we work under open shop conditions; that is, we employ men irrespective of their membership in non-membership in any organization, and will not be restricted in our selection to men of any particular organization. We generally employ both union and non-union men at the same time on our jobs, whenever the union men are willing to work alongside of men that do not belong to their organization."

The answer is signed by G. R. Enasco, contracting engineer.

"The situation is simply this," said President La Guardia. "As soon as non-union laborers are employed on the proposed new Court House every union stonemason, plumber and carpenter will likely walk out and the city will be left without a clause in its contract by which it can arbitrate."

"No one objected to arbitration clauses in contracts except the steel firms. But they cannot make the claim that a city job is like a government job and must be finished without a walkout."

Although the Bethlehem Steel Company is the lowest bidder it has not yet been formally awarded the contract. Action will be taken at Monday's meeting of the board. Meanwhile labor leaders in this city will endeavor to induce Estimate Board members to insist upon an arbitration clause in all contracts. If the clause is rejected, the city may wait a long time for a steel bid, for it is understood that nearly all the big steel construction concerns take the same attitude as Bethlehem and the McClintick concern.

NEPHEW HELD FOR ROBBERY.

Mrs. Farrell Unwittingly Causes
Youth's Arrest.

Mrs. Margaret Farrell, of 299 Woodside Street, Brooklyn, had no idea she would bring her own nephew to trial when she complained to the police that her home had been burglarized July 23, when a gold ring and a $50 Liberty Bond were taken.

But her nephew, Lawrence Farrell, 18, was held without bail to-day in Queens Avenue Court on a robbery charge. He was picked up with several other young men on charges of $1,000.00 and when he gave the address of his aunt, detectives questioned him about the robbery. He is alleged to have confessed, saying he sold the bond for $25 and pawned the ring for $4.

POSSE SURROUNDS TWO AUTO BANDITS AT END OF CHASE

Dashed Through Town with Woman Struggling on Running Board.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 7.—Surrounded in a swamp, in Webster, Frederick Deslaurens and Jules Deslaurens, brothers, of Blackstone, are being hunted to-day by police and civilians on a charge of being auto bandits who have been operating in southern Massachusetts, northern Rhode Island and Connecticut. Every road leading from the swamp is guarded by armed men.

As their car entered Webster last night Frederick Deslaurens made an attack on his wife. She was riding on the running board and struggling with her husband, who was driving the car. Her cries attracted attention and a train of automobiles chased the two cars. After passing through the town, Deslaurens threw his wife and son from the running board, abandoned the car and entered the one which his brother was driving.

This second car entered the swamp, where it was abandoned, and the posse surrounded the two men, who fired several shots at their pursuers as they made their way into the darkness.

FOUGHT SHIP FIRE 8 DAYS.

Men Carried 'Hot Bombs' From Transport's Blazing Hold.

MANILA, Aug. 7.—For eight days Capt. Eugene McCarthy and the crew of the United States army transport Marica fought a fire in the ship's cargo of munitions while the ammunition was exploding. It was learned here recently on the transport's return from Manila. Smoke was seen issuing from a hatch at night during the ship's last voyage to the Philippines. A general alarm was sounded and water was turned on to hold, where 400 tons of ammunition of all sizes were stored. Explosions were taking place every little while, said Capt. McCarthy.

"The cargo in laded shipped shells, live grenades, detonating fuses, bombs and mortar ammunition. My men carried case after case of munitions likely to explode at any moment from the hold and then, when overboard, the boxes were too hot to handle with bare hands, so the men wore gloves. On the eighth night, when the ship had to leave the hold, I got so bad we had to leave the hold, and the men were so hot and tired that they had to be carried out on stretchers. Two nights later the blaze was extinguished."

GIRL STOWAWAY 'SHIMMIED.'

Danced Herself Off New Rochelle and into Obscurity.

The mystery of the female stowaway taken off the New Rochelle at Quarantine Wednesday night, brought back here and freed, was heightened yesterday when three names were given to her and at none of various addresses named had she ever been known. The reason assigned for putting her off the ship was that she had no ticket and that during the night she "cut up camp" and insisted upon shimmying too much.

The steamship company's press agent could not be located either. Consequently information was not obtainable as to why a woman of mystery should be found on the maiden ship of the maiden voyage of the newest of steamship companies.

COPS IN CIVILIAN CLOTHES MUST PAY FARES ON SUBWAY

THE high cost of being a plain cop was demonstrated to-day to go common in civilian clothes on their way to report for duty. They have to pay here now on the Interborough subway, instead of simply showing their shields to the ticket checker.

An order issued last night makes it compulsory for all members of the Police Department wearing "white shields" to buy tickets. According to an agent the order reads:

"Agents will hereafter collect fares from all police officers not in uniform, excepting those displaying yellow shields, who are entitled to ride free."

The yellow or "gold" shield is worn by all officers above the rank of corporal and patrolman. Hence the latter will have to pay out of his own pocket, while his superiors ride free.

LOVE FOR PARKER GONE, MRS. CHISHOLM WOULD GO HOME

ing right. But I do miss my home. "And then," continued Mrs. Chisholm, "it is no easy thing to live on $18 a week nowadays. I pay $35 a month for my room and that leaves me exactly $1.50 a day to eat and dress on."

"I can see you are very much dissatisfied with your new surroundings." I said to Mrs. Chisholm. "Don't you think it quite possible that you will in time return to your home and Mr. Parker now?"

"I am afraid I have appreciated Mr. Chisholm too late," was the sad reply. "Then you do not care for Mr. Parker now?"

"Not at all."

"Not even in a platonic way?"

"I have found him out," said Mrs. Chisholm, with the tears springing into her eyes. "I always respected Mr. Chisholm, but I thought I loved Mr. Parker. Now I find that I have no respect for Mr. Parker at all, and when a woman loses her respect for a man there is no love."

YEARS, SHE SAYS.

"I will tell you as woman to woman that Mr. Parker has always annoyed me and followed me. Long before I was married, when I was only eighteen and a young schoolteacher, Mr. Parker used to follow me to dances and parties, and I used to laugh about his attentions to the girls. I knew he was a married man much older than I, and I was too clever to be caught in his snares."

Then, when I was married, like all women, I thought things were different. Gradually I began to be nicer to him. When we had our summer cottages at Culver's Lake, N. J., we were a great deal of each other and I really believed I loved him. Then it was that Mr. Chisholm called Mr. Parker and put up with him until, "take her or leave her," Mr. Chisholm said that I was mistaken and like a father he wanted to make things right for me. At that time I would have gladly obtained a divorce from my husband and married Mr. Parker. But Mrs. Parker stood in the way and then they told me to take things as I came. On one occasion after that he tried to get me to elope with him but I refused. Then the next week he called me up again and was so insistent that I actually took my automobile to his studio and we started off together. But he was so white and seemed so frightened that I lost all respect for him and drove him back. I saw him in his true light."

"It was then I made up my mind to support myself and work out my own salvation. They say that we have to have a certain amount of sorrow in our lives to make us see things as they are. I may keep on working, there may be a reconciliation, I do not know—but I do respect Mr. Chisholm more than any man in the world and that's all I can say."

JERSEY RIFLE TEAM TO GO.

Gov. Edwards to Draw on Emergency Fund for Expenses to Ohio.

Gov. Edwards of New Jersey has agreed to appropriate $1,200 from his special emergency fund to send a State team to Camp Perry, Ohio, to take part in the national rifle matches beginning Aug. 23.

The War Department had ruled that New Jersey's contingent, owing to the State's inability to send men to Camp Perry on Aug. 1 for preliminary training, would have to go to the State's expense if at all.

She is about twenty-one, weighs 135, is 5 feet 6 inches, has light brown hair and eyes, and wore a brown suit and black sailor hat.
